

BOOKS TO YOU

Books to You provides rotating collections of materials at 50 area residential facilities, including yours, in partnership with the St. Charles City-County Library Foundation. Ask your activities director for more information about the Books to You materials.

Love to read?

If you don't have transportation, register with Books to You to be matched up with a volunteer who will deliver your selected books and materials directly to you.

Love to help?

Books to You is volunteer based--if you'd like to deliver books to homebound residents, call today for more information.
